Our local supply chain community is waiting to meet you!

For a nominal fee, you can join a local ASCM membership partner(s) to maximize your access to industry professionals, knowledge, and community. Pricing for local membership dues vary by partner. Local dues stay with the local organization and help to support programs and fund membership growth.

Local membership partners are here to help you:

- Accelerate the growth of your professional networks
- Position yourself as a thought leader
- Connect with supply chain leaders in your communities
- Contribute to critical supply chain discussions affecting your areas
- Engage in professional development activities
- Advance your industry knowledge

3 easy ways to select a local membership partner

1. Choose a local membership partner when you register for membership
2. Visit ascm.org/find-a-partner to view a partner near you*
3. You can add or update your local membership partner to your membership at any time by visiting My Account (don't forget – you can join more than one local membership partner!)

* Please note there are some areas where a local membership partner may not be available.

¶ The certification upgrade is for anyone planning to pursue certification this year. Members with the certification upgrade save up to 32% on CPIM, CSCP and CLTD learning systems, exams and bundle purchases. If you're already certified, you do not need the upgrade to maintain your credential. The upgrade is only applicable on annual membership.
